

Healthy Marriage Receives Video Festival Award

Sheboygan, Wis. – May 8, 2008 - Healthy Marriage recently received a 2008 WAPC Video Festival Award from the Wisconsin Association of PEG Access Channels, a premiere association for public, education and government channels in Wisconsin.

Award winners were recognized during the association's 10th annual Video Festival Awards Banquet, held over the weekend at the Radisson Paper Valley Hotel in Appleton.

Healthy Marriage, produced by Great Marriages for Sheboygan County Executive Director Charlene Lammers, has won an award of merit in the talk show category for its outstanding programming. Judges critique the programming in nine areas ranging from content and design to technical qualities.

The Healthy Marriage Program airs every Tuesday morning at 9:30am (this is a new time) and Thursday evening at 8:30pm on WSCS TV-8 in Sheboygan.

Left to right: Director Keary Kautzer, Producer Charlene Lammers, Production Coordinator Scott Mealiff

Healthy Marriage is produced by Great Marriages for Sheboygan County Executive Director Charlene Lammers. GMSC is dedicated to strengthening, enriching and supporting marriages in Sheboygan County. It is located at 607 South 8th Street in Sheboygan. For more information call 920-783-3660 or visit the website at www.Great-Marriages.org.